JUDGMENT

Abdul Gafoor, J.

According to the appellant/petitioner his correct date of birth is 29.10.1952, rather than 29.10.1951 as recorded in the service register.

2. The entry in the service register is made depending upon the entry in the school register. The petitioner entered the service long ago. Now, he has approached this court with the writ petition seeking a direction to the respondents "to permit the petitioner to correct the date of birth in the service register and other records".

3. There arises no question of granting such a relief to one, who has already retired from service. If at all there was any error, it ought to have been sought to be rectified following the orders in that regard, which provided a time limit to apply for. The present prayer is far later than that. In such circumstances, there is no reason for interference with the judgment of the learned single Judge.

Writ appeal is accordingly dismissed.
